

New Children's Ministry Director

We are thrilled to announce that Angel Cribbs is now the director of our Children's Ministry at Trinity! As our church continues to grow, especially among young families, we recognize the need to expand and enrich our ministry to children. Angel is a wonderful fit for this role.

A long-time member of Trinity, Angel brings a deep love for both our church and its youngest members. In her new position, she will oversee all aspects of children's ministry from the nursery through fifth grade—including worship, safety, recreation, and education.

Angel will serve as the main point of contact for all questions and communication related to our children's programs. Her leadership will ensure that our children receive the care, guidance, and spiritual foundation they need to grow into committed followers of Christ.

Please keep Angel and her team in your prayers as they plan and implement this exciting new chapter in our ministry. We believe God has great things in store for the children of Trinity—and we're so glad Angel will be helping lead the way.

Welcome, Angel! We look forward to all that God will do through you in this vibrant and growing ministry.

You can reach Angel in the church office at 912-839-2599 or angelcribbs@nevilstrinity.com.

Wednesday Meals are back at Trinity!
